What two foods in the story grow from trees?
__________________________________

Where does a potato grow?
__________________________________

What is made from flour?
________________________

What page shows a man growing rice grains?
Page_____

Cross out the foods that are not made out of milk.

What animal lays eggs for us to eat?
__________________________________
What food do bees make in their hives?

__________________________________

Draw a picture of how sap drips out of a tree to make maple syrup.

List the three grains from the story that grow in fields.

1. ____________________
2. ____________________
3. ____________________

What was the author’s purpose in “Where Does Food Come From?” Explain on the lines how you know.

Persuade I know it’s ____________ because ____________

Inform ____________________________________________

Entertain ____________________________________________